SIR,

I have the honour to enclose herein a copy of the resolution adopted by the Editorial Committee of the Maharaja's -- Sanskrit College Magazine and to request that the Government may kindly be moved to sanction for a further period of three years from 1st January 1935, the concession of getting the magazine -- printed at half cost at the Government Branch Press, Mysore.

A perusal of the statement of the Receipts and Expenditure for 1934 (enclosed) will disclose the extent of the handicap the magazine would be put to at its present stage if the full cost of printing is to be met out of the magazine funds. It would be a great encouragement if the sanction of the Government be kindly obtained for the Committee's request.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

PRESIDENT.

Permission has been granted for the printing of the magazine at half the cost in the Govt Br. Press Mysore, in the P & S. Section of the G. M. Br.

This may be sent to G. M. Br. for taking needful action.

G. M. Br. W.C.
